THIS YEAR

JOHN MADISON FLETCHER, PH.D.

DEDICATION

DEAR DR. FLETCHER:

WE WANT TO MAKE A VERY MODERATE REQUEST OF YOU. YOU ALWAYS REFUSE THINGS THAT ARE IN ANY WAY COMPLIMENTARY TO YOURSELF, BUT IT IS TOO LATE NOW. WE WANT TO DEDICATE THE JAMBALAYA TO YOU. WE CANNOT GIVE YOU VERY CONVINCING REASONS WHY IN THIS LITTLE LETTER, BUT WE WILL TELL YOU THE GREATEST—WE DEDICATE IT TO OUR "FRIEND."

Work of Newcomb Alumnae

IN 1893, three years after the first class graduated from Newcomb College, the Newcomb Alumnae Association was formed and was incorporated a little later under the laws of the State of Louisiana. From its necessarily small beginning it has grown steadily, and today it is an organization of several hundred members that plays—or should play—a vital part in the life of every Newcomb Alumna.

At present the main work of the Alumnae Association is a two-fold one, the Alumnae Loan Fund and the Live Oak Social Center. The loan fund was started a few years ago in response to appeals from various undergraduates for small sums that would permit them to finish their college courses. It is supported from an annual contribution from the dues of the Association, contributions from the members, and some annual entertainment given for its benefit, and since its foundation it has aided twelve students in sums varying from two to ninety dollars, as well as many others with books and clothing. The Live Oak Social Center was begun in 1913 at the public school of that name. Now, at the conclusion of its third year of activity, it is a recognized influence in the community where its work lies. With its membership of over two hundred and fifty, it offers unequaled advantages for real social service to the Alumnae who do—and the many Alumnae who do not—support its work.

The annual Alumnae-College basketball game makes the College and Alumnae known to each other, as does the annual Alumnae Vaudeville Show given for the benefit of the loan fund, which is always most generously supported by the undergraduates. Last year an Alumnae-College baseball game and an Alumnae-College debate served the same purposes.

The Association has, of course, other activities too numerous to be mentioned here. But its main work is, as it has been since its inception, real service to Newcomb in keeping alive the Newcomb spirit in the Newcomb Alumnae, and in keeping loyal to a growing Alma Mater the graduates of its earlier days.

HISTORY OF TULANE UNIVERSITY

TULANE UNIVERSITY looks back for its beginning to the Medical College of Louisiana, which was organized in 1834 and chartered in the spring of 1835. It issued its first degree in March, 1836, the first in medicine or science ever issued in Louisiana. Tulane University as it stands today represents the contract giving to the Tulane administrators perpetual control of the University of Louisiana, which the men to whom Paul Tulane entrusted his donations entered into with the State of Louisiana. In the opening of his letter to the administrators, dated Princeton, May 2, 1882, he writes: "A resident of New Orleans for many years of my active life, having formed many friendships and associations dear to me, and deeply sympathizing with its people in whatever misfortunes or disasters may have befallen them, as well as being sincerely desirous of contributing to their moral and intellectual welfare, I do hereby express to you my intention to donate to you by an act of donation inter vivos all the real estate I own and am possessed of in said city of New Orleans, State of Louisiana, for the promotion and encouragement of intellectual, moral and industrial education among the white young persons in the city of New Orleans, State of Louisiana, and for the advancement of learning and letters, the arts and sciences therein. . . ." Mr. Tulane's first gift amounted in value to $363,000, and subsequent donations raised the total value of real estate donated to $1,050,000, with an annual rental of $75,000. The result of other donations since the time of Mr. Tulane's generosity have been the Richardson Memorial Building, the Josephine Hutchinson Memorial Building, the F. W. Tilton Memorial Library, the endowment of the chair of botany by Mrs. Ada A. Richardson, the donor of the fund with which the present Richardson Memorial Building was erected. A donation of $25,000 by the United Fruit Company has made possible the establishment of the Department of Tropical Medicine, Hygiene and Preventive Medicine, to become the School of Tropical Medicine as soon as a sufficient foundation warrants. The further maintenance of the Department of Tropical Medicine, Hygiene and Preventive Medicine has been made possible by the gifts of Mr. Edward Wisner, of $500 for the year 1912-13, and a promise of an equal amount for four years thereafter; of $600 by Mr. R. H. Downman, and of smaller amounts, all of which have been of material aid. The College of Medicine has received the sum of $500 anonymously, given for the furtherance of the investigation of leprosy, and several sums given by Mrs. Isadore Newman for research in the Department of Pathology. A new engineering building, the Stanley Thomas Hall, was recently built with a bequest of $60,000 from Mr. Stanley O. Thomas.

By the will of Dr. Watson D. Woodward, of Port Jefferson, Suffolk County, New York, who died in October, 1913, there is given to the Tulane Educational Fund for the exclusive benefit of the Dental School the sum of $28,000 and the residue of his estate, all subject to life use by several beneficiaries under the will.

The Tulane Library has been enabled to add greatly to the efficiency of the Department of English Literature and the Department of History through the munificence of Miss Betty Bierne Miles and Miss Margaret Linda Miles. The gifts of Miss Betty Bierne Miles, amounting to $2,500, have been expended in a valuable collection of standard works in English and American literature. The gift and bequest of $6,000 from Miss Margaret Linda Miles has been used to purchase standard works in history. Both these gifts were made in memory of William Porcher Miles, in whose honor a tablet has been placed in the library.

An athletic field which includes a stadium and large grandstand has been provided on the campus at a cost of about $10,000, contributed largely by the Progressive Union of New Orleans.

A legacy of $10,000 for a drinking fountain on the campus of Tulane University for the benefit of its students was given by the will of Livia Hatch Bryant, of Colorado Springs, who died in February, 1914. The bequest is in memory of her father and it is to be known as the Hatch bequest.

The H. Sophie Newcomb Memorial College was the result of a donation of $100,000, in October, 1886, by Mrs. Josephine Louise Newcomb to the Tulane administrators for the establishment of a memorial to her only daughter. Mrs. Newcomb added largely to her original endowment and enabled the college to build the handsome group of buildings in which it is now domiciled. By her will, the University was made her residuary legatee and has received for the benefit of Newcomb College an additional bequest of about $2,700,000. Newcomb has since been the recipient of a bequest of $65,000 from F. Walter Callender.

Under Article 230 of the Constitution of 1879, the Legislature of the State recognized the three departments—Law, Medical and Academic—of the University and granted $10,000 annually until 1884, when the administrators of the Tulane Educational Fund waived this provision on the part of the State. During the three decades subsequent to 1884, the Tulane University of Louisiana has reached its present proportions, and now comprises the Graduate Faculties, the College of Arts and Sciences, the College of Technology, the H. Sophie Newcomb Memorial College for Young Women, the College of Law, and the College of Medicine. The last named includes the Schools of Medicine, Pharmacy, Dentistry, Hygiene, and Tropical Medicine, and the Post-Graduate School of Medicine (Polyclinic). The H. Sophie Newcomb Memorial College includes the Schools of Art, Household Economy, Music and Education.

Senior Class History

CLASS history! What an enormous task, especially when the class for which you must write the history is that of 1916. But deeds live longer than words; and we hope that in later days some trace of the class of 1916 will have remained in the atmosphere of Newcomb, "footprints on the sands of time," to guide our younger sisters along the path up to the final goal of graduation.

But there is no use in recounting or in recalling our achievements to you in detail, which are no doubt as familiar to you as they are to us.

"Vive Valeque"—"live and be worth while"—is our motto, and we have always done our best in every sense of the word to live up to this standard. Have we not promoted class and college spirit? No class has ever been as unified and free from dissension as has been that of 1916. Moreover, we have furthered interclass relationship and have established the guardianship over the Freshmen by the upper classmen.

Senior Class Poem

Newcomb, our Alma Mater, loved by all!
Now, as we leave thy shelter, let us take
The knowledge of thy love; and ne'er forsake
Thy precepts. May we always to the call
Of loyalty respond, as when thy hall
Rang with our voices in days of old. Awake
Our highest worth. O let from every wall
"To live and be of service" ever call,
And in our hearts and minds arouse the need
Of purpose strong. Greatness is not the key
To happiness and real success. We see
That truest virtue lies in the noble deed.
This be our aim: O Newcomb, make us free
Always to serve, to trust, and honor thee.

Freshman Class Poem

Nineteen-nineteen, who is she
 That all around commend her?
 Young, ambitious, brave is she,
 Such grace the Fates did lend her
 That star of Newcomb she might be.

She is loyal,
 She is numerous.
 Quantity with worth combines
 Where defeated can be humorous.
 Holds the germs of mighty minds.

Nineteen-nineteen, who is she,
 That all around applaud her?
 The greatest class at school is she.
 May future fame reward her,
 For star of Newcomb she shall be.

She is eager,
 She's resourceful.
 Hopes that she will e'er be so,
 And that in three years, successful,
 Undiminished, forth she'll go. J. C., '19.

PROF. ELLSWORTH WOODWARD

ESTHER, THAT IRRESISTIBLE CHILE
FO-SOMEWHAT SMALL AND LEAN.
WILL TEACH THIS OLD WORLD
THE BEAUTIES OF PINK AND GREEN.

ETHEL, A DELICIOUS CRUMB,
A DANSEUSE WILDE AND I AM SOME.
POOR PAVLOVA WILL CHANGE
HER SONG
WHEN OUR TIE COMES ALONG.

GENEVIEVE WILL LIVE IN AN OLD FASHIONED GARRET -
WITH LOVELY FLOWERS AND QUANT
AND THERE SHELL SIT ALL
DAY LONG -
AND PAINT AND PAINT AND PAINT

MARY, MARY, COME CONGRAT
HOW WILL YOU GRADUATE?
GROW
FULL OF SWEETS IN PASTRY
AND A LOT OF FAIRY
I KNOW

LITTLE LEVY, TOO BUSY
EVEN TO GROW,
YOUR FUTURE CAREER
WILL BE SHORT I FEAR -
FOR THE GOOD DR. YOUNG,
YOU KNOW

GLADYS IS OUR MYSTERIOUS
MONA -
WHOSE DANDERNE HAR IS OUR PRIDE -
WE TELL HER ON KRAUT AND SOLEGN -
HER HUNGER WE CANNOT ABIDE

LUCILLE, OUR WATER COOL
SHARK -
COULD PAINT A "HIGHLIGHT"
IN THE DARK -
ABORTICELL! SHE WILL BE
OR SOME OTHER CELEBRITY

CARRIE CLEVER CARRIE ENTIRELY TOO CLEVER TO MARRY
YOU'LL PAINT GREEN PAGES
AND KICK OVER THE TRACES AND STARE THE WORLD OUT

SUNSHINE & LAUGHTER A PLEAS
IN THE TALK OF OUR DEUGY
ONE SEEDS -
ALWAYS BEARD IN HER COMPS
TO PARTER OF LOVED PINE TREES

"BILLY"
"AN UNCLAIMED BLESSING"
WILL NOT BE YOUR LOT,
YOU'LL HAVE A LITTLE (?)
HUSBAND
AND LOVE HIM A LOT.

"ZILY"
EDNA, LIKE MARYSAYS TUDOR
JOT GREEN GREEN GREEN -
ACCORDING TO MISS BARR - SHE MAY NOT NOT BE THERE -
BUT IS SHE LITTLE OR BE SHE TALL
SHE'S GOT THE DANCEY HEARTY OF ALL YOUR TORNAE TO SHIP

HELEN, WITH THAT SHIP NEU
PH -
AND YOUR KNOWING GOOD
I'LL NOT ATTEMPT SHIP

Freshman Art Class Poem

Behold! The skilled Seniors, by request,
Have ceased to paint four "compos"—they may rest,
For great works of wondrous grace
Now can fill the blackboard space.
You will find this new arrangement much the best.

Cubists are no longer all the go;
It is not of their creations you must know—
For we Freshman marvels now
Will show the world just how
The colors in a masterpiece must flow.

Bright crimson is quite common in our class;
Perspective we'll defy until the last.
We do not work by rule
In this, our modern school—
We scorn the narrow margins of the past.

Senior Arts and Sciences History

GAIN the slowly turning wheel of time brings near the joyous, tearful season of the year when youthful worshippers of the Poetic Muse pay homage at their goddess' feet. From all sides they come, pouring out upon the ears of a long-enduring world stories of fame and glory which "their class" won in some dim, forgotten time of long ago; then cursing fate that they must sever all pleasant ties that bind them to their Alma Mater.

We, too, as we stand trembling on the threshold of the life which now begins to unfold itself before us, would turn to take a farewell glance at all the "good old times" which we have spent within the walls of old Tulane. Fond memories flood upon us—of the days when A. B. D. was called on twice a day to arbitrate some Fresh-Soph trouble; when "16's" would appear upon the Tank only to start a new "investigation;" when dormy lads spent half the night on fire escapes to dodge the latest magazine collector, or spent the hours transporting Sophs to Pelican Park whence they might return as best they might; when the Sophs were forced to call on stage directors to save their prexy from our gentle hands. And then of days when new blood came to take our place as Freshies and give us all the joys of "initiation" of the verdant frosh. Then came the time when childish sports were all forsworn and '16 showed the world they were stuff that men are made of. And now the class which has furnished men for every varsity activity during the four years it has spent in Tulane, approaches the day when it must gird on the armor of preparation gained in four years study and go forth, confident, ready, to find worlds to conquer.

We do not, however, approach the time in any spirit of fond farewell, O Alma Mater, for our hearts shall never be so wrapped in struggles with the sea of life but at your slightest call we all shall rally to you. Your name and memories shall not pass into the world of long-forgotten past, but in the realm of memory where all things live anew, we are Yours and You are ours forever.

Sophomore Arts and Sciences History

THE Class of '18 is known not for its quantity but its quality. In numbers it is small, but in intellect and diversification extremely large. The members of the class, who have survived the great toils and hardships of the Freshman year, and are now soaring on closer to the goal, are as a whole one of the most brilliant in the institution.

This small class has been banded together by the strong ties of both college and class spirit ever since entering the University, and is always represented in the student activities. It is ever ready to lend a hand to aid and support its fellow mate and endeavor to make him succeed.

Besides being intellectually great, the class may boast of men who are known for other things about the school. Among these are "Red" Simpson, the 'varsity track and football man; the small wrestler and boxer, "Midget" Kohlman; and 'varsity football manager, Marion Legendre.

Now, kind readers, I do not think it necessary to enumerate each and every good trait of the entire class, or of each individual; for certainly if you will allow me to make a prophecy, you will hear of every one of these men ere many years have elapsed. Surely, men who start out making such rapid progress as these men of '18 are doing will not stop very short of becoming great.

EDWIN F. MARX,

Historian, '18.

Freshman Arts and Sciences History

It is little worthy of historical note that annually there enters the Arts and Sciences College of Tulane University a class of boys, called Freshmen; but the present writer is called upon to make history of the fact, that in October, 1915, there resounded through the corridors of Gibson Hall the steady, determined tread of a mighty concourse of stalwart Southern manhood, that type of manhood on which the foundation of our "Dear Old Olive and Blue," of this great nation, in fact, is laid.

In October, 1915, the Class of '19 determined to throw aside the manacles of ignorance, and with eyes fixed on the goal of high ambition, started at a steady pace the race for the accomplishment of ideal, in which graduation from Tulane is but the first lap; not avoiding, but conquering and completely vanquishing every obstacle in the way, be it great or small, a problem in trigonometry or a Sophomore. (Of course, it is understood that mere trifles like pulling a string a Soft-o-mores through Lake Audubon twice in fifteen minutes, or kicking a football between two goal posts some half-dozen times within an hour, although, if I remember correctly, there were some little Sophomores running behind us chirping, "Please don't," are not worthy of consideration under this caption).

Well, after calmly ridding themselves of a few such harmless pests as a fly, a mosquito, and a drove of Sophomores, the Freshmen quickly gained momentum, and now it can be said without the slightest fear of successful contradiction that the Class of '19 bids fair to stand at the apex of educational advancement at Tulane University. This fact is self-evident, as all who have looked soberly and thoughtfully at this class of Freshmen, readily agree. However, in needless substantiation, the following evidence is presented:

1. The month after the coming of the Class of '19 an announcement was made to the effect that Tulane had been advanced to a front rank among American colleges.
2. In the middle ages the only men who possessed any education or scientific knowledge worth mentioning were the monks, who were distinguished from the rank and file of men by a small, round cap, called a skull-cap. Consequently, to-day the skull-cap is a recognized emblem of superior learning. Now, although the Class of '19 has been at Tulane only a few months, it has been announced by the faculty that the members of the Freshman Class, and no others, are admitted to the exclusive "Order of the Skull-cap."
3. Dean A. B. Dinwiddie announced shortly after the arrival of the Class of '19 that the honor system was proving splendidly successful.

We ask you, gentle reader, do not these facts proclaim volumes?

We modestly refrain from lifting the curtain of the future, leaving that privilege with the reader, who has before him the historical facts, and the true light of an historical interpretation, which will show him the brilliant stage of the future, prognosticating that new era, when the Class of '19 shall have emerged, pure metal, unalloyed, from that powerful, refining crucible, TULANE.

Junior Technology Class History

THREE years have swiftly passed since first the doors of Tulane were opened to our endeavors. And all too swiftly, for now, and scarcely realizing it, we stand upon the threshold of our last—our Senior year—from which we shall go out into the world to seek our fortunes, yet without those guiding hands that have so carefully piloted us over the many reefs and uncertainties of our past.

Therefore, let us look back upon the more significant achievements of the earlier years of our college career.

As Freshmen we were but Freshmen, gay and giddy, with but little thought save for the present.

However, Tulane was aware of the fact that such a class was within her sacred precincts, and of all Tulane, the Sophomores were most aware.

Even after the first contest for supremacy, that of the Tug-o'-War, our rival classmen dampened both in spirit and body, knew that they were "in for it." Each contest was but a repetition of the first, and in the end the Freshman athletes emerged battle-scarred but triumphant.

Entering the second year, reduced in numbers, but not in spirit, and greatly strengthened by unity, we prepared to defend our laurels against the oncoming horde of Freshmen. As to physical prowess, they were little superior to their friends, the Juniors. But credit must be given where it is deserved, for in the football game they held our much heavier eleven to a scoreless tie. When it came to brains, if they may be called such, the Freshies were right there with the goods, their debating team quite overwhelming our worthy speakers.

The track meet closed our series of inter-class events, and "1917" boldly adorned the much coveted "tank."

Then, becoming upper-classmen, we bade farewell to such rivalry and ascended to a more lofty plane, from which we might look upon the strifes of our successors and turn our undivided attention to the affairs of Tulane. Historian.

Sophomore Technology Class History

THE class of 1918 is a wonderful class, yea, some class. After having weathered the rocky course of our Freshman year we have climbed to the dignified and awe-inspiring rank of Sophomore. We number among our ranks many of the coming lights of Christendom; but to continue, after our fearful struggle with the hostile profs of the Freshman year we have been dragged, bitterly contesting every trench, into the misty heights of calculus and physics. Notwithstanding these necessary evils, we have found time to devote ourselves to every line of college endeavor. We have among us many promising athletes, and when it comes to intellect, why, we are all "chez nous." Our class has done wonders for Tulane; it will take many generations after us to live down the wonderful standard which we have set. This may seem rather overdrawn and egotistical to the reader, but ask any Sophomore and I feel sure that he will agree most heartily.

But I am neglecting our tender little charges, the Freshmen. These microbes blew into the city late last fall, about the first of October, I think. The first day one of our cruel classmates showed up with an ounce of insect powder, but the brutal lad was apprehended before the complete extermination of the class was accomplished. Oh! no, Clarice, the finish of the tug-o-war resulted from a very odd coincidence. The one outstanding characteristic of this germ is its frantic terror of H_2O —it frequently consumes its weight in prunes in a day—but the mere smell of H_2O throws it into violent convulsions. It would have been as easy to destroy a Ford as to have dragged that bunch of bacteria into the pond. When the fumes of that dreaded liquid reached their nostrils they struggled like infuriated squirrels. Their terror was so pitiful that we could find no heart to offer much resistance.

The wrestling was a crime. Does the gentle reader remember the epidemic of grip which lately broke out in our midst? It was the wrestling. We had notified the Board of Health, and immediately after musing up a Freshman, our martyrs were fumigated, but, alas, to no avail. It was rumored for some time the football game would be cancelled, but we would have no such stain on our escutcheon, and we put out a team, but of course we chose immunes and not our regular star players. But we have ordered gas masks from Europe, so we are ready for the next contest.

Sad to say, we have many more serious things to consider than Freshmen, and we feel sure that we have proven ourselves a hard-working class of young men. Many mistaken people have the idea that a college lad has an easy and joyful time, but take it from us, if the last two years are like the first two, the hard, cruel world will be a welcome change.

Freshman Technology Class History

Trembling with excitement, yet brave, awaiting their turn to be formally made members of a real university by going through the awe-inspiring and intricate ceremony termed "matriculation," the members of the Class of 1919 stood before the gates of Tulane one stormy September morning. They felt especially brave, however, owing to their numbers; all were there, and such an assortment of labeled goods was never known to beat on the doors of the old institution.

Soon after the scholastic year opened, our class was organized, the captains of our various teams elected, and a state of "preparedness" existed throughout the class. However, this was unnecessary, for the slogan of the "worthy" Sophomores was "safety first."

In the first contest between the two classes—the tug-of-war—Captain Fassman and his team came out victorious, defeating the Sophomores in record time. The next inter-class contest which was wrestling, while it was lost by the Freshmen, casts no discredit upon the captain of the team, Macon Edmondson; for without the year of training the "Sophs" would have found the task too much for them to cope with. The third contest added another Sophomore scalp to the Freshman belt. In a pouring rain Captain Dave Godat and his gridiron warriors clearly demonstrated their superiority as football artists by easily defeating the Sophomore team. Our class is looking forward with keen interest to the events which follow, and are expecting the same success from our basketball captain, the captain of our track team, and the captain of our baseball team.

We have now reached the end of the history. Fate alone knows what the future has in store for us, but come what may, the Freshman of the Class of Nineteen-nineteen will also remain true to the saying, "Never forget a friend and never forgive an enemy." Woe be unto the Sophomores.

CHARLES PAYNE FENNER, B.S., LL.B.
DEAN OF THE COLLEGE OF LAW

The Previously, Now and Soon of 1916 Law

ABOUT the time that the Lovely Cuts of new 1914 Models began to seduce the Automobiliious, the 1916 Model Justinians Busted in on the college, and stood Dear Old Alma on her Ear. This Cluster of studes hung about the Erudition Emporium before the Lunch Hour and Intermittently consented to Rest from the Labors of the Night Before in the same Chamber, wherein an Underpaid though Earnest Educator was Picking Flaws in the Jurisprudence.

For three Merry Christmasses and Summer Vacations, the Budding Blackstones cried, "This is the Existence!" and even when the Brain Factory did Business at the Old Stand, the Two-a-Days held forth, the Burlesque wasn't suppressed, and the Movies were Continuous—so there were Compensations. And yet these lads Mucilaged to their College Duties, which consisted in Vigorous Yodeling at Football Afternoons, Fussing the Fair, and Ever and Anon, with accent on the ever, Coating the City a Colorful Carmine.

Some of the Underdone Marshals strained the Bulging Biceps in Rude Contests of Force with Misguided Devotees from Neighboring Didactic Dispensaries. Some few Brave Spirits, on Rare Occasions, or in Moments of Remorse, read a case in a Mysterious tome, which was seldom on Speaking Terms with the Ardent Seekers, but which same they carried around with Felonious Intention to Deceive the Trusting Pedagog.

After three seasons of Successful Failure, the Embryo Attorneys were to be Dumped Out on an Innocent and Law-abiding Community, despite the Loud Wails from the Profession, and the Quiet but Determined Efforts of the Underpaid though Earnest Educators, to prevent the Exodus.

The Gala Day advanced at a Trot. After a few Propositions, that had filled the Asylums with Jurisconsults, had been Nonchalantly settled by the Ivory-topped Aspirants for LL.B., and after the Dear Directors of the Mental Process had Registered Despair on Perusing the Vacuum Papers, the Vast Auditorium Broke Out in Potted Palms, and Proud Progenitors fought for Favored Positions. Then to Crashing Chords up the Central Aistle, the Angel Band did a One-step in their rented Nightgowns and Nobby Lids, with a Dingus tickling their Red Ears, while Pater, Mater, and Various Deluded Ascendants and Collaterals Lighted up the Dark Corners with their Beaming Countenances.

Then it was all over, and the Fertile Fields of the Practice were Oozing and Exuding the pure coin of the Realm, that can be Exchanged for Tin-Lizzies, Cigars and other Creature Comforts (so it was rumored.) But never did the Nimble Nickel nimb with Greater Facility than it did out of the Clasp of Pursuing Genius.

But most of the Miniature Mansfields hung on like a Dissolved Trust, some appearing before one Bar, some before another Bar, and eventually Choked the World into Submission, and Proceeded to Extract the Reluctant Pocketbook.

Having the Wherewithal, the Arrived Brainy Boys all got Attached to Blown-in-the-Bottle Angels, and Lived Happily for Quite Awhile, Pensioned the Underpaid though Earnest Educators, and never forgot Alma. HERMAN LION BARNETT, Historian.

TULANE MEDICAL

ISADORE DYER, PH.B., M.D.
DEAN OF THE SCHOOLS OF MEDICINE AND PHARMACY

Senior Medical Class History

IMBUED with the spirit of our worthy predecessors, Aesculapius and Hippocrates, and with the fervent wish that we, like those two estimable gentlemen, might write our names indelibly on the pages of medical history, the present Senior Class of 1916 knocked submissively at the doors of the Tulane Medical Department for entrance. Having matriculated and entered upon the threshold of our medical career, we calmly proceeded to show our professors what a brilliant body of men they were to have the honor of teaching. Little did we realize what we were about to enter—the broad expanse that confronted us and the numerous invisible problems of life that must be solved. Having “cast the die,” we traveled on in our insignificance with our heads thrown back in the position of opisthotonus and accosted each professor with a smile, all the while trying to hide our inmost feelings. Many a one amongst us would have “thrown up the sponge,” but for the fear of having been called a quitter. As time wore on and our knowledge grew, confidence was restored to us and simultaneously our Crania began to hypertrophy. By the end of the Freshman year we knew more medicine than any of our teachers, or rather we thought we did. Surely we were destined to be numbered among the world’s greatest physicians and surgeons.

Then came the one continuous “nightmare”—the Sophomore year. Our confidence in ourselves was once more rudely shaken and we swore that if we were allowed to finish that year creditably, we would never return to the uptown campus again. At last, we were beginning to realize of how little importance we were. With much concentration of mind and grinding we finally managed to “weather the storm,” and the majority of us were allowed to enter the Junior year unconditionally. (“Not neurologically speaking.”)

Upon our entrance into the third year we all resolved to take advantage of every fleeting opportunity. Daily we were made to appreciate the importance of being skilled in the branches of medicine and surgery. To attain this end we have all conscientiously striven, being led by the all powerful hand of our great “Masseur-Petriseur” and “over and over again,” receiving stimulation through DIGITALIS, the therapeutic GIANT indicated in every one but three of a series of seventy-five cases, our path was made less formidable. In the three cases mentioned, the contra-indications were so pronounced that upon following up the previous medication the mortality was sixty-six and two-thirds per cent. Death resulting in these cases from “BLOCK.”

Then, “by the way,” gentle reader, we passed from the digitalis era into the “strychnine-atropine” era. It is impossible to prognosticate the mortality resulting from these drugs so early after their administration, but thus far no untoward symptoms other than those of “cerebral irritation” have developed. If further symptoms should arise there is one drug we should always remember as proving useful in such cases if rendered in its maximum total dosage. When all medication fails, the aural administration of a little "KI-YI" by old Dr. "Hoshkosh" from "Keokuk," should be tried. The best of treatment in the most skilled hands often proves futile, and there may be a few who will have to be transferred to "KINGS" ward.

In conclusion we may say that even though we assumed an agnostic attitude in the beginning, "blease, schentlemen, we hope that our attainments, however small, have been so indelibly impressed upon the minds of those before whom we have "passed in review," that they may deem each of us "CHAPPIES" worthy to participate in "Planting of the Ivy."

Junior Medical Class History

HIS class, according to the class just above it, is always looking for something easy and getting it. We agree with them on their first thoughts, but haven't found anything easy yet, and from the way things look, and from what graduate doctors say, we are not due to find anything easy this side of death, and then if we have to go below, I'll bet the chief will put us in some laboratory and give us something to draw. We are very thankful for this respite though, and we want to wish all the good artists of the Sophomore Class the best of luck in pulling through. We are having an easy time, or would be having an easy time if it were not for the semester examinations next week. We approach them with fear, but by the kindness and sympathy of the professors we hope to pass them all up and to be ready for a little rest.

This is a lazy class, just like all the rest, so lazy in fact that we haven't taken the trouble to make any history. We have resolved to do better next year, to make more history, to study our work during the year rather than the two days before exams, to never again get up and leave an exam, to never again get up and out early before vacation starts, to never question the sincerity of the instructor, to do our work every day as though we enjoyed it, and want to learn something rather than to seem that we are driven to it. This and we resolve to remember the kindnesses of the Seniors and promise to do likewise unto the Sophomores.

Sophomore Medical Class History

FTER one year's endeavor to develop an acute "observation and discernment by using our God-given gift of reason," the Sophomore Class fell into a maelstrom on the 29th of September and, being bombarded from every angle, find ourselves with an exceedingly high blood pressure and have about concluded that our encephalon is a conglomerated, heterogeneous mass of gelatin, and on carefully percussing, get an amphoric tone—a la Gage an absolute vacuum. There is some class to this Sophomore year!

During our Freshman year a box of bones, Morris's Anatomy, microscope and the gentle voice calling "Chappies" caused us to wonder how a man ever reached Seniordom. In spite of all these troubles the year was a success and most of the class returned as Sophomores. Spurred on by ambition and cognizant of the necessity of being thorough in our work the milkman often catches us trying to run tracts through the brain stem or writing up the four hundreth Chemistry experiment. However, to be thorough is impossible, and we trust that some day the Sophomore year and war will not be so much alike.

The personnel of the class is good and the spirit of altruism prevails instead of egoism. The class stands together in the conflict, shooting and getting shot—a miniature European war. We have both strong and weak men, some of which we hope to see standing at the top notch of the medical profession, and we trust that the future holds success in her grasp for every man in the class.

The acquaintances of our Freshman year have ripened into genuine friendship which we trust will continue during our college days and throughout life, and while we are here together may we have high and noble ideals—"strike at the stars, even if we lose our hatchet."

O. R. THOMPSON, Historian.

Freshman Medical Class History

BACK of every organization there glows the radium of an ideal—an irrepressible, centrifugal force which stimulates and acts as a mighty agent in the accomplishment of the great deeds of history. Nations and men for all ages have been possessed of it; their use or abuse of its power can best be traced by the records they have left. Those who have cherished and fanned the flame with an eager fervency are reaping the reward of renown in their respective fields of endeavor.

A mighty force indeed, indeed, is an ideal—with each success the flame exultantly leaps higher, nor does it die down with the disappointments of the struggle. True, it may smoulder, but lies ever ready to again flame up as the occasion arises.

The Freshmen are possessed of just such an ideal. It is the ambition of each member of the class, some seventy-five strong, to diligently apply himself to the duties in hand as he goes through the walls of Tulane. By so doing, he hopes to reach that summit of ambition—a true disciple of health to the nation, capable, alert, and conscientious.

And keeping their ideal before us, we feel sure we shall stand at graduation four years hence, men and women with ideals well worthy of praise of our instructors.

Senior Dental Class History

WHEN the Dental Department enrolled the Freshman Class of 1913-14, the matriculants represented several States, as well as a few foreign countries. Among these new students were men who had deserted various positions with the ambition of becoming Dentists. They took up the study of Dentistry not only because it would elevate them financially and socially, but because they were fond of the kind of work this profession affords. Therefore, the members of the class became hard and persistent workers and soon were receiving considerable praise from both dental and medical professors. Indeed, this class was at once rated as the equal of any preceding one. Not only were these ambitious students excellent in theory, but were skilful workers in the dental laboratory. Thus, during the Freshman year, this class established quite a record, and was determined to maintain the same standard throughout the course.

The class started the Junior year with fewer members, but with the same determination which had won favor for it during the previous year. The brilliant record was upheld, and upon entering the clinic all proved as efficient in practical work as in theory.

As Seniors the class was increased by the addition of a few transferred students, but the same high standard prevails and this class will go forth as one of the best equipped that has ever left Tulane University.

D. K. HENRY.

Senior Dental Class

EDWARD D. W. DEANE Bridgetown, Barbadoes

"NED"

Psi Omega

As God intended, so let it be understood—a man

"Ned," the human broach holder, hails from the far-off British West Indies, and is very loyal to the Union Jack. He is a strong supporter of the Allies, and upon completing his course will enter the dental corps of the British army. Although an admirer of American girls, he failed to find "thee" girl, each love affair proving negative.

CHARLES G. DUGAS Paincourtville, Louisiana

"DUGEY"

Psi Omega

*Love lies in a woman's eyes,
And lies, and lies, and lies*

During his Junior year, "Dugey" was Secretary and Treasurer of the class, and was a member of the Varsity baseball team, 1914-1915. He is an expert diagnostician of Pyorrhea Alveolaris. "If gums bleed, they got it." His practice was limited to debutantes. Charlie expects to practice in the wilds of Louisiana.

ROBERT L. GRIFFITH Monticello, Mississippi

"RED NECK"

Eat, drink, and be—careful

"Griff" came to us from Vanderbilt, and is a member of the Benedict. With his equipment, we see no reason why he should not do well as an Orthodontist.

WALTER C. HAVA New Orleans, Louisiana

"HAVER"

Psi Omega

Cast thy bread upon the water, for thou shalt find it after many days

Hava is a native of Louisiana, and after studying medicine two years decided to study dentistry, and entered the Junior class in 1914. Several times during the session Walter answered eight-thirty roll call, devoting much time to his pompadour. By diligent work and eagerness to learn, he soon became quite proficient in his chosen profession.

SENIOR DENTAL CLASS

D. K. HENRY Henry, Louisiana

"KAJIN"

There's many a good thing lost by not asking for it

"Kelly," our class historian, has been an excellent student, a hard worker, and ever ready to learn. After following the plow in his early youth, the idea of becoming a professional man loomed before him. Thus he concluded to devote his supreme intellect to the relief of suffering humanity. Henry is the guy who put the "back" in Bacteriology.

L. D. R. HOUK New Orleans, Louisiana

Kappa Alpha

All great men think as I do

After attending Louisiana State University, Houk entered the Department of Dentistry, where he has been a diligent student throughout the entire course, and hopes to be a real dentist when he grows up.

C. GOULD HOUSE Lake Charles, Louisiana

"DOC"

The simple believeth every word, but the prudent man looketh well to his going

Ladies and gentlemen, we take great pleasure in introducing to you "Doc" House, who is renowned throughout the laboratory as the greatest Exodontist in the South. He came to our midst from the wilds of Calcasieu, Lake Charles being the metropolis which boasts of his habitation. He is a speed king, and a member of the Benedict. Possessing all these qualities, we hope that some day he will be a real dentist.

A. LOGAN MAGRUDER New Orleans, La.

"SMILING MAC"

Kappa Alpha

*Laugh, and the world laughs with you;
Work, and you work alone*

"Mac" is the President of the Senior class, and represented the Varsity in baseball in 1914-1915, being Captain of the team in 1915. Logan inherited a desire to become a professional man, and entered the Dental Department. He is well liked by the members of his class, who predict a grand success for him.

SENIOR DENTAL CLASS

FRED W. McCLURE Jacksboro, Texas

"SILENT MACK"

Teach a just man and he will increase in learning

"Mack" comes from North Texas and is a quiet, unassuming, and honest young man, and is one made of the sterner stuff, upon whom we can depend for the best that is in him. He is just like his roommate, Trigg, "we don't think." Love leaves its mark on all men. Frederick is badly scarred up.

BENJAMIN J. MARTIN Anderson, Texas

"BENNIE"

He that tooteth his own horn, the same shall be tooted

"Bennie" is another Vanderbilt man who joined us in our Junior year. Martin has performed three unsuccessful apicoectomy operations, and, although not a specialist in Orthodontia, he takes great pleasure in answering the roll call. He collected some large fees for his dental operations before the alarm clock rang.

ALPHONSE C. B. MEYNIER New Orleans, Louisiana

"MINNIE"

Psi Omega

Joffre of the Class

"Minnie" was Vice-President of the Freshman class, 1913, and Vice-President of the Student Body in 1914. He entered the Freshman class with some knowledge of dentistry, and during the three years has proven equal to the task, for he is regarded as being one of the best and most persistent workers in the class. "Al" was quite a tumbler in the gymnasium during his Freshman year.

HARRY M. NOLAN New Orleans, Louisiana

"TOTTIE"

Psi Omega

Base female deceiver, let thyself be gone

Harry calls New Orleans his home, but lives in Algiers. His earnestness and personality have won for him a wide popularity among the students and faculty. We predict for him a great future in Oral Surgery, he having gained fame during his senior year in treating fractures, and what it takes to make bridges, he has instruments. He has been honorably mentioned in the Hall of Fame as a lady-killer.

SENIOR DENTAL CLASS

THEO. M. O'FERRALL Natchez, Mississippi

"TEDDIE"

*Wine, woman, and song;
Oh, death, where is thy sting?*

Theo, after spending his Freshman year with us, sought a change of climate and cast his lot with Loyola. Having found things not to his liking, the desire grew upon him to return to his former classmates. Thus, he matriculated for the Senior year with us. He is quite a dispenser of Oil of Cassia, and is a profound admirer of Richmond Crowns—after they are made.

HAZEL G. PRICE New Orleans, Louisiana

"HAZEL"

A merry heart doeth good like a medicine

Miss Price is the second young lady to take up the study of dentistry in Tulane University, and from the beginning has made a brilliant record, having led the class, in theory. By her keen sense of humor and jovial disposition, she has been a favorite among the student body. She held the office of Secretary and Treasurer of Student Body during the Freshman year and was Secretary and Treasurer of the Senior class.

VICTOR M. ROSENTHAL Tampa, Florida

"ROSY"

In days gone by it was "Wine, woman and song"; now it's "Cocktail, chicken and turkey trot"

"Rosy" was the mainstay of the Varsity football team in 1913-1914-1915. He came to us as a transfer from the Medical Department and was very fond of Prosthetic Technic.

*He cared not for exposed pulps;
What he was after was results*

OLIVIER J. SONGY Wallace, Louisiana

"SNOGY"

How long wilt thou sleep; when wilt thou arouse out of thy sleep?

"Snoogy," leaving the cane plantation, entered Tulane to take up the study of dentistry, and the only disagreeable study in his course was Anatomy—he simply could not stand the odor.

SENIOR DENTAL CLASS

OSCAR B. TAYLOR Hondo, Texas

"BUDDY"

All the world loves a lover

Oscar was Secretary and Treasurer of the Freshman class and Vice-President of the Senior class. He came from West Texas. After a few months he discarded his sombrero and chaps and began to look like a real human being. Chemistry was a "walk-over" for him, Chemistry doing the walking. He has distinguished himself in the clinic, and bids fair to become an efficient dentist. Although he is ethical in every sense of the word, he has devoted quite a bit of time and thought to "Price." He was a special examiner at the Orphan Asylum.

B. E. TRIGG Texarkana, Arkansas

"TRIGGY"

Let your conscience be your guide

Trigg was a member of the Varsity baseball team in 1911. He did well in his Freshman year, especially Chemistry; in fact, he did so well he took up the study more in detail. By his wit and humor he has made many friends. One good habit of Trigg's was, he seldom went out during the first hours of the night, always coming in early in the morn. Trigg will specialize in Pyorrhea Alveolaris.

BENJAMIN F. WALTON Laurel, Mississippi

"WALTON"

Thy modesty's a candle to thy merit

Walton was reared in Mississippi, and took upon himself the task of acquiring a professional title, and spent his Freshman and Junior years at the Southern Dental College, and is now a member of our Senior class. Walton is a good worker, and on foil fillings he is NO beginner. He was the "Casey Jones" of the class, and an ardent admirer of the fair sex. Oh, you standing collar!

ROY WHITE, PH.G. New Orleans, Louisiana

"BOB WHITE"

Psi Omega

As long as truth is naked, people will continue to take liberties with her

After receiving a Ph.G. degree from the New Orleans College of Pharmacy, Roy entered Tulane in this great department, and held several responsible offices during the time—President of the Freshman and Junior classes, and President of the Student Body during his Senior year. White comes recommended as a good pill-roller, and leaves us as a good dentist, having applied himself well, and in for all there was to learn. Roy was very popular among the students, and during his leisure hours extracted teeth for the "good" people of Gretna.

SENIOR DENTAL CLASS

THEODORE WILSON

Comaguey, Cuba

"GRANDPA"

I am as sober as a judge

Wilson, a member of the Benedict, and the Senior member of the class, came to us from the far-off Island of Cuba, and numbers his friends by his acquaintances. Although he was not a rapid worker, he was a skillful and diligent operator and a strong believer in asepsis. Wilson made a good Vice-President during our Junior year, and was a good worker for the welfare of the class. A plot was planned to rid him of his beautiful whiskers during his Freshman year, but a skillful tonsorialist was not available, hence he is still the proud possessor of them.

Kappa Delta Phi is a Junior-Senior society, organized for the promotion of college spirit at Tulane University. It seeks to obtain its object in two ways: First, by holding forth membership as a reward to those who have done more than the average man for their University, thus fostering and encouraging unusual effort; and, secondly, by binding together those who have made unusual effort, thus becoming a force for greater good by securing unity of action.

Tulane Summer Survey Camp —Where We Went

THE civil engineers went to Wilson. Now do not think that Wilson is a new town just because it is named after the President. Wilson is like the girl that Sig. rang up on his arrival—it is hard to tell how old it be. But never mind its age. We all agree that Wilson is a fine town. In the first place, its Hotel de Railroad with its elegant dining hall is the best to be found in all that section of the country. It has as many as thirteen rooms with a shower in each room providing you leave your window open. In the second place, Wilson is noted for its amusements. You can go into the movie show and listen to the gasoline pipe organ as long as you want. If you do not see the one you are looking for in there you may come out and walk around until you find her, then you may go back and enjoy some more music without paying another cent. On Sundays you may go to church, go fishing or go to Jackson. If you are a sensible person you will do the latter.

The people in Wilson are a law-abiding people, however, and from our past experience we hereby give a few precautions to be observed within the city limits: Never come into the town without a shirt on unless you are certain that the yardmaster's chair is properly insulated (shock proof). Never take the beds out of the hotel windows over the roof. Never question what is set before you at the hotel. If the Wilson chickens lay pink eggs; that's their business. Do not think that because you are a wizard with the Wilson ladies that you are a cowboy with the Wilson cattle.

With a successful financial season behind, the Athletic Association expects to be able to put Tulane athletics on a firmer basis with each succeeding year. Since the institution of the athletic fee, men of the student body have attended games better than ever before, and there is no doubt of the steady burning of the Tulane spirit-fire.

History of 1915 Football

BY MAX M. SCHAUMBURGER

LIVING up to expectations, the 1915 football season was, without doubt, one of the most successful of recent years, not only in the showing made in the various games, but financially as well. Of course, we did not win any of our most important games, but the scores by which we lost always were an indication that there had been an awful hard fight, and that there were no huge "walk-overs," such as really occurred in 1914.

Besides this, as had also been predicted, the fact that all of the students paid the newly introduced athletic fee was a great deal responsible for the wonderful spirit of enthusiasm which was shown at all times by the large crowds of Tulanians and Newcombites which attended the various contests.

One of the biggest factors in the great gridiron success of 1915 was without any doubt Coach Clark D. Shaughnessey, "the smiling coach." Smiling, indeed, when everything goes the way he wants it to go, which is the right way, and the only way, but woe to the man who disobeys orders and loafes on the job. Out he comes, and there is no pity; with Coach Shaughnessey, football is a survival of the fittest, and no preference is given to any man for any job, unless he is decidedly the best man for the position. Under the direction of the Coach, and Captain "Pete" Mailhes, the squad of "ole-timers" and "young uns" worked like Trojans, and every man who stayed on the squad kept true to form all the way through. Not only the Varsity men, but a good deal of honor is due to the scrubs, who came out faithfully, bearing the brunt of it from day to day, with never a grumble. To the Medics who came out from time to time and tussled with the Varsity, a good deal of credit is due.

That there was a real football team at Tulane had been suspected long before the end of the season, in particular after that big surprise was sprung against the Alabama "Maroons" early in the season. In that game everyone expected to see Tulane trounced badly, but there was a surprise in store for everybody. For three periods the powerful up-state team was unable to register a tally, the only scoring being done by "Bully" Vander Graaff, the All-American tackle, who booted a field goal in each period; the final touchdown, when the time for the game was really up, should not have been counted in at all.

The great wind-up of the season was, of course, as it has always been, the Turkey Day game against the Tiger in his lair at Red Stickville. We did lose the game, it is true, but was there ever a victory for which our team deserved more honor than for this 12-0 score? Everyone will remember the Tiger rush in that first half; how, by flukes and errors, the "Man Eaters" managed to net two tallies; how big

"Pete" and plucky little Nick Johnson, mainstays of the team, were put out of the game. After that, matters did indeed look sad and dreary for the fate of the Olive and Blue. Then the memorable come-back of that second half will never be forgotten. Weakened, as the team was by the loss of two of its best players, they not only kept the Tiger from scoring, but completely outplayed him, and at the end of the half there was no change in the score registered against us. The enthusiasm of the students and the alumni after that game will be remembered by all. They seemed finally brought to the realization that Tulane had a real fighting football team, and a coach who knew his business. The big football rally, spring practice, and the fight that was made to retain Coach Shaughnessey are a few of the factors that should count heavily for the 1916 season. No longer need we fear that football will be abolished at Tulane, for the slogan, "Good football or no football," has done its work. Good football is with us, and with us to stay.

Football "T" Men

WOODWARD—"CARL"

Do you know Carl Woodward's big toe? Well, never again will it kick a football for old Tulane, because the big "Swede" has served his sentence and cannot compete again. His work during the quartet of seasons here has been of the high-class order, and Shaughnessy will have to groom a man to replace the blonde hero on the kickoff, place kick and at tackle. Carl is one of the most popular athletes in the University, and his beautiful soprano voice is an inspiration to his teammates.

ROSENTHAL—"ROSY"

Newly elected Captain, alleged to be the gabbiest, pepperiest gridiron dynamo in the South. "Rosy" played a great game at guard this past year and showed his best stuff out in Florida, his native State, where he was in every play. While it was pouring down rain during the game, he got over on the Florida line-up a couple of times and went through some plays with them.

MILHOLLAND—"NUTS"

Another Florida hero. "Whitey" played brilliant games every time he started, but he only managed to get in a few plays at Florida. There a terrible "Alligator" bumped him on his milk-colored dome, where the vegetation was scarce, and rendered him fit for the boobyhatch for the remainder of the contest. Shaughnessy had to teach him the signals all over again, and it was hard enough the first time.

MAILHES—"PETE"

Ole Cap'n Pete served his last of four faithful years on Olive and Blue Varsity teams with the windup of the past season. Pete, for all this time, has braved the terrors of "Pop's" wrath and hearkened not to the siren of the Steamer Sydney in order to make our teams worth while, and in the coming years his graceful (?) form will not be seen stopping some ambitious opponent trying to make a gain through our line.

FOOTBALL "T" MEN

FICK—"SLEETER"

Everett's main grievance is with the newspapers because of the ingenuity of the scribes in spelling his name in 57 different varieties. "Flock" and "Fjick" are among the prizewinners. The old boy acquired the reputation of bearcat when he had to be kept out of reach of the Howard gentlemen, and he has been peeved over it ever since. Finding football and the Y. M. C. A. presidency too far removed from one another, Sleeter, realizing how much we needed him, graciously squished the latter.

JOHNSON—"NICK"

Another one of these peroxide blondes. We have about half a dozen on the squad. Nick is not much on height, but is right there when it comes to boring his way through an opposing line. From the lightest guard in the South, Shaughnessy made him a plunging halfback. Nick will be on hand next start to bring more honor to his Alma Mater.

FAUST—"ED"

The fleet little quarterback with the blonde top, who frequently got away for long gains from that position and from halfback, where he will probably play next year. Ed is always a hard, willing trainer, and was a distinct asset to the light Tulane backfield. In the role of track captain, Ed continued his speed work. He will be back on the gridiron next year working as hard as ever.

GEORGE—"HORSE"

The idol of the fair ladies who attended our games and of Tulane fans for many a year. He certainly learned to play easily. Well, he can pick up almost anything (see certain hotelkeepers). Garrett's punting has more than once taken old Tulane out of a dangerous hole, and as we will not see him in action again at all, at all, we are filled with everlasting grief. Garrett's marcelle wave to his hair is at once the admiration and envy of every skirt who beholds it.

FOOTBALL "T" MEN

JERWICK—"JERRY" ALIAS "PEP"

He has as much fight in him as a bull pup when he gets warmed up, but, oh, how he hates to get warmed up! Jerry would rather shamble along through life and dance with Florida girls than anything in this world. This is the lad's second year out on the sod, and we will be glad to see him back in togs next year. Jerwick is also a wrestler of no mean ability. Motto: "The effort would kill me."

BLANCHARD

ALIAS "FEET" AND "BOOTS"

The biggest, laziest, fastest man on the team. "Blanche" has all these characteristics rolled into one, paradoxical as it may seem. "Blanche" was easily the fastest man on the eleven until some rude opponent stepped upon his dainty little ankle, and he had to do a hobble for the rest of the season. Shaughnessy expects great things of this boy next year.

KILLEEN

Another "Meester Joe," the living example of pep. A diminutive quarterback who handled the team like clockwork.

ALDERETI—"ALKALI IKE"

The terrible Mex. One of the best fighting machines on the squad. He can make old General Villa, or Carranza look like a nickle of chile con carne when it comes to the aggressiveness in a battle. While he did not come out until late in the season, Ike played good pigskin clean through his games, and is due to repeat again, some more, besides.

FOOTBALL "T" MEN

CLAY

A new face in Tulane athletics, but one that jumped into favor right away quick, for the way he held down the end position on the team. Bernie is a lank individual, and his words find trouble getting out of his mouth, but the way he can spoil a perfectly good end run is a shame. He is chiefly noted for his adventure with a cow in a pasture near Tulane while he was playing center on the basketball team.

WEST

Yes, this is the Manager, to whom the war cry, "When do we EAT?" is the most awful of maledictions. But we must hand it to "Juno" for that wonderful feed he handed us on the Florida trip at the Wayside station. A manager's troubles are many, and "Juno" has had his, but he handled the reins in good style from the trip to Covington to the journey from Baton Rouge.

CAZENEUVE

"Mister Joe Evariste Cassanova" is back again in our midst after a year of absence in the wilds of Indiana, and met with a hearty welcome by Tulanians and opponents alike. Joe's line of beef was a big factor in boosting up our line, and he lost no opportunity to get in the plays.

McGRAW—"MAC"

The fighting end. Here is another lad Shaughnessy expects bright things of in the approaching fall. He is well up in the speed stuff, a great punter, and, with George on the retired list, will be Tulane's booter for next season. Mac's work on the Varsity basketball and track teams this year will put extra poundage on his frame, and it looks like a backfield job for him.

TULANE'S PLUNGING BACKFIELD

Tulane Baseball Review, 1915

BY GEORGE W. BOOTH, JR.

Playing like world-beaters at home and blowing up like ill-timed firecrackers on the road, the 1915 aggregation of diamond-heavers representing the Olive and Blue had another "successful" season if you look at it from where the stadium grandstand used to be, or "unsuccessful" if you choose to be mean and follow the team on its annual spring jaunt.

Briefly and succinctly, our flag-bearers lost ten games and won six.

Analyzing the record, the ten games dropped is really not as bad as appears on the face. Two of these ten, at the very start of the season, were with the superbly drilled and major-league combination of ball tossers known as the University of Illinois. That is how they appeared to Coach Bruce Hayes, the players and those spectators who wanted to see big league ball, on one side, without hiking North or East. That leaves eight defeats to be accounted for.

Tulane dropped six flat straight on the road, two to Louisiana State, one to Mississippi College, and a trio to Ole Miss. Not offering any alibis, Tulane should have won at the very least three of these games—the first with L. S. U, the game with Mississippi College, and the final from Ole Miss.

It is not often that a team comes from behind, with two men out in the last half of the ninth, and wins out with a crippled pinch hitter up. That is why Tulane lost the famous 6-5 game to the Tiger; Brockman, after hurling a great game, being the victim.

L. S. U. won the second farcical game, score 19-0. But it really benefited Tulane because it showed that Nelson McNeil, a midget 130-pounder, was the pitching find of Southern collegiate baseball—for his size, weight, and skill. McNeil showed up so well that he was pitted against Mississippi College the very next game. It wasn't his fault that he was half carried from the field with a split hand in the ninth, with the score a tie. When he left the game Tulane lost. Joe

First Row—MILES, ADAM, BOOTH, MARSDEN

Second Row—DUGAS, MAGRUDER, TARLETON, LAWRENCE

McLean twirled one of the best games of the season against Ole Miss in the final of the series, losing in ten innings, score 3-2.

Back on the home lot Tulane won the majority. It must not be forgotten that Tulane, following the Illinois game, had bested Jefferson College two straight games by identical scores on the home lot. With the road trip's dust still in its eyes Coach Hayes' charges dropped two straight to Marion Institute, and then copped the final through the masterly pitching of McNeil, though his split hand had not quite healed.

This last-named victory of Tulane paved the way for Nelson McNeil to perform probably the greatest athletic feat ever pulled off at Tulane, and maybe at any other Dixie school. McNeil, after his win over Marion on a certain Saturday, turned around and beat the strong St. Paul College nine in their own bailiwick at Covington, La., on the Wednesday following, and then—get this close—this wonderful little “midget”—barely 130 pounds—defeated Louisiana State University two straight games on Friday and Saturday of the same week. Truly a great performance. No wonder he was unanimously elected captain of the 1916 team, even though a Freshman.

The whole team played bright, consistent ball, and the only pity was that the season was so short. Not until the last week, with McNeil in the box, did the team really hit its stride.

Captain Magruder proved a brilliant leader. Probably the best “hit-and-run” men in the S. I. A. A., Bobby Tarleton, of Jeanerette, La., was the find of the season at first base. Ruff Adams not only excelled with the mask, but broke up several games with his trusty stick. Marston was the veteran shortstop. Pete Mailhes had a habit of hitting triples and led the team batting. Charley Dugas stopped many a hard drive at third Coleman, Lawrence, Becker, and Brockman, the latter as pitcher and outfielder, played star ball.

And too much credit cannot be given our veteran coach, Bruce Ignatius Hayes, undoubtedly the peer of all Southern college baseball tutors.

Tulane's 1915 Track Team

BY ED FAUST, Captain 1916

IN the whole, the 1915 track season was a success. It is true, we failed to lick the Tigers; but not only did we put up a good, stiff fight, as evidenced by a one-point difference in the score, but we actually had them beaten up to the relay race, an event which before this year did not score any points. We had the best of coaching, and want all Tulanians to appreciate how much we owe Coach E. R. Sweetland.

The usual number of meets were held, with one addition. There was the interdepartment meet, won by the Meds; the Tulane-L. S. U. dual meet, already spoken of; the S. I. A. A., held at Tulane Stadium, and in which Tulane took second place, with eight points to spare between them and our dear friends, the Tigers. Mississippi A. & M. was a comfortable distance ahead of both, while Vanderbilt was last. The interfraternity meet must not be forgotten. In this the Dekes emulated the proverbial dark horse, and nosed out the Kappa Sigs. In addition, Tulane sent her team this year into the Southern A. A. U. championships, an event in which she has not been represented in several years. Tulane carried off first honors on Junior Day, and made a more than creditable showing against the Young Men's Gymnastic Club on Senior Day.

Under the leadership of Captain Reggie Schmidt was perhaps one of the largest teams that ever represented Tulane. In all, seventeen letters were awarded. Among the men returned from the 1914 squad were Schmidt and Oakes in the hurdles and sprints; Ed Faust, Stouse, and Achorn in the middle distance; Jones in the pole vault; McGraw in the quarter, and Wyndam and Fick in the weights. Quite a number of new men made their T's this year, and among them are Simpson, Mogabgab, Modinger, Barr, Todd, Ludwig, Mann, Wolff, and Fenno. Weinmann, Morris, and Tucker also competed in the various meets. Most of these men return next year, and then watch that 1916 team.

Southern Intercollegiate Tournament

THE Southern Intercollegiate Tennis Tournament was held in New Orleans for the first time in 1915, being played on the clay courts of the New Orleans Country Club during the second week of May. The tournament was held by the Tulane Athletic Association, under the auspices of the U. S. N. L. T. A., and proved to be a success in every way. Teams were entered from the University of Texas, Vanderbilt University, Louisiana State University, and Tulane University of Louisiana. Tulane won both the singles and doubles championships; Douglas Watters winning the singles, and Douglas Watters and Henry Bruns winning the doubles. The University of Texas was runner-up in both of these events.

Vanderbilt and L. S. U. were eliminated in the early rounds of the tournament. Both universities had two entries in the singles and one team in the doubles.

The finals of the doubles between Stacy and Broad of Texas, and Watters and Bruns of Tulane proved to be the fastest match of the tournament, and one of the fastest doubles matches ever seen on the New Orleans courts. Stacy of Texas was at his best and his "killing" was the finest ever exhibited on the local courts. Broad played a steady game, but was the weakest of the four players. Bruns and Watters displayed fine teamwork and were equally good on attack and defense. Watters gained point after point by his clever net playing, and Bruns showed wonderful accuracy and speed on his driving. Watters and Bruns won the first two sets, but lost the third, which was the hardest fought of the match and showed up the best tennis. The Texas team then slowed up somewhat and Tulane won the fourth set and the match. The final score was 6-3; 6-4; 6-8; 6-4.

In the singles, Stacy of Texas and Watters of Tulane reached the finals. Stacy won from Morris of Tulane in his half of the semi-finals, and Watters defeated Arthur Waters, both of Tulane, in the other half. This Watters-Waters match was a good one and Watters only won the same after being forced to the full five sets.

Stacy and Watters then met in the finals, and after three very closely contested sets, Watters won the singles championship for Tulane. Stacy played well, but Watters outplayed him in every department of the game except killing. The last set was the best one, and it looked as if Stacy was going to win the same, but he seemed to tire at the critical moment and Watters pulled the set out. The final score was 6-4; 6-3; 8-6.

Physical Training Notes, 1915-1916

As a supplement to the Physical Training Course, the following tournaments are held for the benefit of the whole student body. The Wrestling Tournament heads the list as being the most popular and beneficial, and had at the beginning of the year over one hundred students enrolled, including Freshmen, Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors from every department in the University. Competition is based on seven weight divisions; namely, Paper Weight, up to 108 pounds; Bantam, 108 to 115; Feather, 115 to 125; Light, 125 to 135; Welter, 135 to 145; Middle, 145 to 158; Heavy, 158 and up. After many elimination matches and up to the time of publication of the JAMBALAYA the following men represent the various weights: Paper, Kohlman vs. Gondran in the finals; Bantam, Edmonson vs. Bostick, wrestle in finals; Feather, Thibodeaux vs. Marsalis, in finals; Lightweight, Mather, Kerlein, Landry, George and Perez are still in the semi-finals; Middle, Koen, Voss, Heath, Cassagne, and Leggett are in semi-finals; while in Heavyweight Buchanan, Wellington, Simpson, and Jerwick are in semi-finals. A full wrestling suit is given the winners of each weight. Since wrestling started three years ago at Tulane many local outside competition matches have been held, and last year Tulane won over $50 worth of medals, in gold, silver and bronze, and also holds the All-Southern Amateur Titles in Paper, Bantam, Feather, Light, Middle and Heavy-weights, losing the Welterweight title by a very small margin. The University of Texas, University of Arkansas, and Oklahoma A. & M. wish to meet Tulane University mat artists in competition, but due to low finances of the Athletic Association we are unable to guarantee bringing these respective schools here in exchange for our men going there.

The Handball Tournament, begun this year, had an enrollment of about seventy-five students in the single matches, and after many eliminations the following men remain in the semi-finals: Bourgeois, Hammett, Ruby, Vallas, Legendre, and Jaubert, all of whom are favorites and have equal playing abilities. The doubles in handball are represented by Keplinger and Bourgeois vs. Ramirez and Parkerson; Legett and Peyroux vs. Hammett and Hubener; Gallo and George vs. Beckley and Duffy; Brown and Thibodeaux vs. Ruby and Fassman; Souchon and Griswold vs. Mather and Shankle; Vallas and Hamilton vs. Legendre and Gondran; Jaubert and Scharff, A., vs. Stouse and Scharff, L.; Cassagne and Barry vs. Martin and Simpson. This sport has come into prominence in the last two years.

The Boxing Tournament, begun this year, has an enrollment of sixty-five students. The following students have bright prospects of doing some good work in this sport and possibly landing some All-Southern Amateur titles for Tulane: Bostick, Edmonson, Meyer, Ogden, Boatner, Fassman, George, Legett, Schaumburger, Granata, Maihles, Simpson, Aldereti, and Bruner. Legett, Meyer, Schaumburger, and Granata have had experience and training through workouts with some of the first-class amateurs of this city and elsewhere.

The gymnasium and physical training work is not only for the benefit of a few star athletes, but for the benefit of the whole student body. If every student who pays the required $5.00 gymnasium fee would take up the course of work in a regular and systematic way, he would receive more than his money's worth in a surprisingly short period of time. Don't wait until you graduate and then join some Y. M. C. A. or athletic club which will cost you from $15 to $50 per year membership, and possibly not receive the personal attention that you are always gladly given at the Tulane gymnasium.

Heard from Newcomb Section at S. I. A. A. Meet

In regard to top row:

First Pair—Aren't they just as strong-looking as anything? But, say, Grace, he's knock-kneed. I never could love a knock-kneed man.

Second Pair—Don't you adore hairy men? His legs just look like a cave man's. I bet if he loved you, he would carry you off to a cave, or something.

Third Pair—Tell me, Gwendolyn, do you think they are fat or just chubby? Now, I like chubby boys, because they are nice, like my poodle; but fat ones are abominable. They have double chins, and that isn't nice.

Fourth Pair—Negroes on my father's place would call that man slew-footed. The way he catches his little trousers is right cute, though, don't you think?

Fifth Pair—He don't look like an athlete! Why, his legs are just as smooth and straight as a ten-year-old girl's. He's big, all right, but I like knotty muscles.

In regard to bottom row:

First Pair—Look at the funny little dimples all around his knees! I heard you had to keep your feet straight when you ran, and he spreads his out wide. New, I think he ought to wear more clothes, anyhow.

Second Pair—He-he, he-he. His legs are all crooked. Gee, Fannie, he's bumpy as the Clio car line.

Third Pair—Know who that is, Annibel? That's — (whisper). Don't you think he has a grand shape? I was studying about Hercules last week, and he would just feel puny if he was here.

Fourth Pair—I know he's bowlegged, but I say, you don't mind after you get used to it. And it's just lovely in hurdling, he says so. Sometimes you can let one go through without jumping while the judges aren't looking.

Fifth Pair—Oh, they're pretty good, Gladys, below the knee, but they look like a lamp chimney to my eyesight.

Sixth Pair—I think he's just a wonderful looking man. Aren't you sorry for his poor little foot, all bandaged up? Anybody would be proud of legs like those.

Announcement

REGARDLESS OF ENORMOUS COST AND BLOOD-CURDLING DANGERS, WE HAVE ASSEMBLED A MENAGERIE OF EXTRAORDINARY QUALITY. NEVER WERE SUCH UN-EARTHLY BOOBS ASSEMBLED TOGETHER UNDER ONE CANVAS UNTIL THE PRESENT OCCASION. PLEASE DO NOT POKE THE ANIMALS, THEY ARE PROBABLY SORE ALREADY.

The Zoo

"NUTS"

"Good thing they put me in here. Didn't think they would leave the football manager out. Girls, I am young, and innocent, and pure, and only smoke Camel cigarettes."

Get the Hook!!

"FRESH"

This muscular Freshman is the pride (?) of his class. The only one this year that hails from a city (?). He was lately initiated to the Knights of the Concrete Floor.

"Gee, girls, ain't I cute."

"AXEL"

No, Axel doesn't belong to the Rotary Club. He is also a valiant Knight. Some say he's a bear (Polar) in Agency.

Shoot it all.

"MAC"

Men may come and men may go, so does the dough. $B_3 + D_4 = N_7$. This young chemist is discovering a chemical to kill the boll weevil.

I'm a horse.

"MEESTER JOE"

From the sublime to the ridiculous. Caruso is still looking for him. Is it a law book he has under his arm? Why, sure not, he's studying the principal character in "Ten Nights in a Bar-Room."

Say, Drew, quit your hidin'.

THE ZOO

"GEORGE"

He's not sick. It's natural. He only looks that way because he knows it won't show. What won't show? The misplaced eyebrow. Excuse me, it's only a Bull Strainer.

What would you do without it, Patrick?

"MIL"

He's a bally old chappie. Never could catch a pig in a ditch, but always could catch a damsel's eye. Some say he will make a good doctor. Some say a good cashier.

Why don't you let someone have a chance at Class President?

"JIMMIE"

Ladies, this is Jimmie. He's awfully dirty (an engineer), but still he can hurdle (sometimes). The only thing you won't like about the animal, ladies, is that he is bashful and never makes any noise.

We engineers bathe every Saturday

"DAVE AND NELVIL"

You can tell by the smile and stand that they are both good (?). You can tell that they are bright by the books. Dave believes in preparedness. He wears the Fresh Shield.

We make the world go round.

"ARTHUR AND MAC"

The animals still come in two by twos, the chimpanzee and the kangaroo. The kangaroo's name is—but he never drinks water. The chimpanzee is captain of a scheduleless Varsity team.

Wonder what team that is.

THE ZOO

"DUTCH"

No, not from the New York Police Force. Some say that they think they heard that he thinks that he's smart. Oh! by the way, he's a Senior.

Tell us about the Siberian banking system.

"FRENCHY AND WARREN"

BIG: "I'm going to graduate this year."

LITTLE: "Isn't the Tulane Weekly better than ever."

BIG: "Hope I pass."

LITTLE: "Me for the Jambalaya next year."

(Dreams of ignorance, friends.)

Congrats, boys.

"MAR"

"I always have a handkerchief in my pocket, and I like perfume. Oh, girls, don't you like my form." Get a gun, James, he's suffering.

Say, referee, he's holding.

"TUBBY"

"I'm a lone she wolf, and it's my time to howl. Whoop-e-e. Am also a cow puncher, but say, the girls think I'm good looking." Cut it out, Texas, we've got enough of your bull over here.

Hit him with a lily.

"MORRIS AND HARRISON"

Reveries—Tulane Night. These are only models, you understand. There are times—hic—when you think you might'nt—hic—. There are times when—call a jitney. Just one more. Look out, fellows, I want to—go home.

Oh, boy, the good ship Rock and Rye.

THE ZOO

"NICK"

"O, YOU KID! You're too cute to live." The only reason we keep him is because he says that he can play football. Notice the pose, the smile, the handkerchief, the trousers, the—.

Say, what do you charge us to take us to Pine Street?

"IKE"

"Carramba! Vivos las Insurrectos! Get dem Tigers, fellos." This little German is getting thinner every day.

More beans, Izzy.

"HERRMANN"

"Tee, Hee! Tee, Hee! Just look at my Key. I debated on the Varsity. Me for a mark in life." Go to it, Kid, everybody is looking at you.

You're wrong, Judge.

"HORSE"

Look at the hands and feet on that Stude,—I mean horse. Shook the camera to keep him from breaking it. Spoiled his cute smile. Some say he's a good toast-master.

Let's have another, boys.

"HARRY"

Oh, Joy! Just look at our plunging guard. Bet he's a medic. You can tell by the periscope.

Put on your hat, you're getting bald-headed.

THE ZOO

"BULLPUPS"

"Yes, this is me. How do you like my looks—I mean mustache (?). I feel awfully tired, been going out so much lately, went to the Louisiana last——." Reader, cut it out.

Tell us all about yourself.

"DAN AND BOB"

Tennis players both are we,
From the dormitory.
We are rounders and no fools,
For we go to Tulane School.

Roh! Roh! Roh! for Purity.

"HERBIE"

I know a lot of high school stuff,
Of Latin and Greek, I've had enough.
The boys they say I am a grind,
But editor of the Quarterly for mine.

Gee, I wish I could study.

"GENE"

Here we have an aspiring athlete. Where did you get that track shirt? In the back of the gym. Further ahead is the Engineering building.

Varsity for mine.

"RED"

"I don't see why they cut my legs off. They're the longest thing I've got—except my red hair. Anyhow, I won't be able to put the shot without it. I'll be a football player one of these days."

Join not the dissipators.

OCTOBER

Freshmen organize and pay class dues.
Old students dribble in slowly.
Football prospects reported good.
Stadium is out-argued by a storm.
Tech students tack up parts of it.
Free? Well, I guess not.
Team wins. We'll lick L. S. U!
Gym dance is given on the occasion of finding a man who is green enough to pay for a Tulane Weekly subscription.
Arthur Waters drops in. Wants to know if school has started.
Rushing starts. Freshies dazed by sudden popularity. Also by conflicting statements in regard to their future welfare.

NOVEMBER

Shaughnessy forever! We'll lick L. S. U!
Morris makes ready for the Baton Rouge trip.
Some girls in Florida, huh, Pete?
Initiations. Freshies wake up.
Dormitories are startled by Kappa Kappa Mu.
Dr. Dinwiddie organizes Board of Control consisting of most prominent members. Hard luck, Doctor.
The cabarets flourish.
Bauer is called before faculty.
Mixon falls from grace.
Sloo is not here to organize the Noridrig. We have one anyhow.
Morris goes to Baton Rouge.
The team goes to Baton Rouge.
We all go to Baton Rouge.
Some time! Why worry that we lost? Pete weeps.
Some days later—Morris returns.

DECEMBER

Football team attends classes.
Houndini Garrett is caught awake at 2 P.M.
Jambalaya pictures must be taken immediately.
Merry snickers.
Rosy elected captain.
Bauer is called before the faculty.
Agnes Freeman is well enough to eat a soft-boiled egg for dinner.
Dr. Love gets a self-starting limousine. Aaron and Metzrath are appointed chief mechanics.
Diphtheria scare. Extra vacations for suspects are some class.
The caharets flourish.

Ashton J. Moss attends Roman Law Class.
Milt Brenner acknowledges he is from Texas. Ellinger also confesses.
Jimmy Reeves, poorest student in Soph. Med. Class, answers a question. Class votes a commemorative tablet.
At general student body election T. C. Lyon is voted most accommodating man on the campus.
Swede Woodward hands in some class work. Faculty rejoices.
Christmas holidays. Noisy departure.

JANUARY

Bauer is called before the faculty.
Finnegan Altman gets his goal-shooters together. Alabama, 33; Tulane, 32. Boy, boy, what a game.
Tulane Weekly pulls off a joke.
Jambalaya becomes active. Delinquents dodge. Weeps! Dells vanishes in smoke. Funeral procession by law students. Seavey objects to old hymn, "Nero, my dog, has fleas."
Doc Metz takes snapshot in medical basement.
Exams begin. Waldo and Meraux burn the midnight electricity.
Waldo nearly passes a course. Millmine is also subject to congratulations.
Medical basement reopens.

FEBRUARY

Fresh Laws get an 8 o'clock. Some attend.
Basketball team licks L. S. U. Nearly everybody else licks the basketball team.
Roccaforte and Perkins attend games at Newcomb. They cheer.
Dumas is getting bad. Said darn. Is suspected of tasting beer.
Inoculated sheep escapes. Population flees in terror.
Katz's forever.
Bauer calls on the Dean.
Fritz Oakes returns to our midst.
Sleeter Fick announces German sympathies.
Debating team is picked. Judges took what they had to.
Johnson is unable to perceive the stage "Tulane Night." Other Seniors show a desire to giggle. Others yell in the wrong place. Altogether a large night.

MARCH

Stadium condemned, but new one planned. Anyhow, we should worry. Mardi Gras! Nuf sed.

PROVERBS

I. Observe thy study hours and obey thy teachers that thy days may be short in Newcomb.

II. Many seeketh the favor of the Faculty, but every man's standing cometh from his attendance at Assembly.

III. Boast not thyself of Phi Beta Kappa, for lo! Miss Sunne is exceedingly diligent.

IV. Whosoever talketh in the library the same shall be cast out for a week, even a Senior.

V. He that keepeth carefully the advice of Student Council keepeth his path free from danger, but he that droppeth paper upon the grounds shall surely fall.

VI. Be thou diligent in thy clerking on registration day and look well to thy salary.

VII. He that appeareth not in gym the same shall be tried in Moot Court before the Student Body.

VIII. Envy not thy sister her cap and gown, for thou knowest not the sorrows accompanying.

TESTING FOR THE BRILLIANCY OF NEWCOMB SENIORS

DISCLOSURES OF PUBLIC EVENTS

JANET: The A. B. C. Conference means the American Babies Contest.

ERIN: The A. B. C. Conference was for simplifying spelling.

CLARA: Dante was a famous French writer.

JENNIE: Sancho Panza was a mediaeval educator and writer of great merit.

ADELE: The alimentary canal is found in Ohio.

JULIA: The Golden Horn is what Gabriel will blow.

REGINA: Watchful waiting is waiting which is watchful.

AUGUSTA: Florence Nightingale is the name of a South American bird.

MINNA: The Triple Entente has not been yet decided upon. It is a matter of great discussion.

SOLIDELLE: The Levant—a Jewish holiday.

ON EXAM: What is faculty psychology?

ANSWER: Faculty psychology means the minds of the different teachers. I think Miss Stone is very brilliant, but inclined to slight nervousness. Miss Harkness is very rigid, but rather kind.

* * *

JUNIOR (on examination): "If they used a great deal of painted scenery in Elizabethan times, it was not much."

Carrie waited on the table.

Freshie Green's First Day at College

One morning in last September Pa came in an' tole the folks he had decided to send me to college. He'd been out in the barn an' I'd jes' come back from milkin'. We all sat down to breakfast, an' finally Pa said, "Well, Ma, I'm goin' to send that boy to college." 'Course I thought Pa'd want me to go to one er them "uniform and brass button" places, an' I was in a hurry to know where I was goin'. He said, "I know where you think I'm goin' to send you, Si, but no tin-soldier business is any good in college. You'll go to Tulane." I'd heard erbout Tulane from some fellers when we was out campin' on the bayou, and had seen that sport from Tulane who used to come up here to see Aunt Minervy Jones' gal, Sal. Sallie shorely is a good-lookin' gal, and the fellers 'round here didn't stand no chance 'gainst that feller. He shorely was a sport; he dressed somethin' swell, and had a real gold watch chain and a funny pin that he gave Sal. Well, I figgered I'd like Tulane all right, an' maybe I might get to be a real lady-killer like that feller Polk.

'Bout a week afterwards I went down an' got on the train. Nearly everybody 'round erbout was there to see me off, 'cause you know Pa's sheriff an' a big man in our parish. Sallie was down there an' said her folks was goin' to send her off to school, too, but she didn't know just where. When she tole me good-bye I tried to kiss her, but she jumped, an' all I got was her chin on my nose. Well, I got on the train an' waved to everybody, an' then she started to goin' real fast an' I didn't have a chance to wave to the fellers in the swimmin'-hole as we went by. In a little while we passed outer the parish, an' I decided to look 'round some. Ma had fixed me up a real nice basket er grub an' had some doughnuts an' a bottle er buttermilk in it. I came to the doughnuts first thing, an' they shore was good.

I saw a nice-lookin' feller 'cross from me lookin' real hard at me eatin', so I says to him, "Don't you want some?" He said, "No, thanks; I've breakfasted." But he come over an' started talkin'. He asked me where I was goin', and said he was on his way to New Orleans to go to Tulane, too. He said he was from Eros, an' I didn't know where that was. Pa'd tole me to keep my mouth shut an' I wouldn't let out how little I knowed, so I didn't axt him where it was. I asked him would it be his first year at Tulane, an' he said, "No, I'd be a Senior if it wasn't for my conditions." I didn't see how his health could keep him from bein' a Senior, 'cause he looked real well. Well, looks are deceivin' sometimes. Pretty soon he pulled out a little flat gold box an' took out a cigarette an' asked me to have one. I took it fer perliteness, an' it was a new kind. It had some sort er brown stuff pasted 'round one end an' I thought that was the end to light. He saw me an' kinder grinned; then he said, "Don't light that end; that's the cork tip." I tole him we didn't smoke nothin' like that at home, an' he said, "Oh, you'll learn; that's a Turkish cigarette." I saw him lookin' in my basket, which was open, and finally he said, "Got a baby traveling with you?" I tole him no an' he said, "What's the milk for?" I tole him that it was buttermilk Ma had fixed up fer me, an' he laughed. I wonder why, 'cause I didn't see no joke.

In a little while he said it wouldn't be a bad idea to go through the train an' see if we couldn't find some more of the fellers. He met a whole bunch, an' talked a little while before interducin' me to them. I heard one er them say, "You can tell that by his looks, easy." One feller didn't catch my name an' asked it over. When I said "Green," he said, "That's a cinch." They was all mighty nice to me, an' inquired 'specially erbout the folks on the farm, an' wanted to know if there was any more like me. I tole them that I was Ma's only son, an' one of them wanted to know if I was raised on buttermilk.

The next station was a place called "Winnfield," an' one feller got on there. Everybody yelled, "Hello, Sleeter!" an' he came on up an' joined the crowd. He looked real fierce, but the fellers said that he was part tame from bein' at Tulane, but that he was a football player. We had a nice time till we got to New Orleans, an' I tole the fellers I'd have to hunt up Pa's lawyer an' get my money, 'cause he was 'fraid to trust me on such a long journey with so much money.

Pa's lawyer was mighty nice to me, an' I stayed at his house that night. The next mornin' I went up to college to do my registratin', an' I found the feller they all called "Sleeter" sittin' on the front steps talkin' to a feller with his pants rolled nearly up to his waist. He said he was a Senior, too; an' it looks sorter like everythin' here is a Senior. The feller with his pants rolled up tole me I'd have to go in an' see a feller named "Bruff," an' he showed me where to go. There was already a whole lot er people in there, an' I had to stan' in one corner an' wait my turn. Lots of fellers came in an' went ahead of me. I didn't think that was perlite, but they done it all the same.

Finally Mr. Bruff motioned to me, an' I showed him my hayseed high school diploma. He took it an' looked in a book an' said, "You'll have to see the Dean." I asked him what that was, an' he tole me to go across the hall. He sorter smiled, but I s'pose he was tryin' to look pleasant. I finally found the Dean, an' he tole me I'd have to enter with a condition. I didn't know what that was, but I s'pose it was all right if he said so, 'cause he seemed to know everythin' an' a little bit more. He sent me back to Mr. Bruff with a slip of paper, an' I had to give him 'most all er my money fer a little receipt an' somethin' he called a "matriculatin' card." They shorely do use big words 'round this place.

After that I went out inter the hall an' saw a bunch er fellers all talkin' at once. One of them, a big tall feller—they called him "Red"—'most twelve feet tall, give me a "library ticket." It was mighty nice of him, 'cause another feller tried to sell me one fer two dollars. Nearly all of them asked how crops was doin' an' erbout the folks on the farm. I wonder they knowed I lived on a farm.

Finally I got settled down pretty well an' got fixed in my room in the Dormitory. Fellers would open the door, look in, an' then go out grinnin' after sayin' they thought

I was somebody else. There wasn't many up there that night, 'cause they all went out somewhere. The next mornin' I took my matriculatin' card an' had to go 'round an' get the perfessers to sign it. Some of them sure looked funny. One feller was little an' small; some er the boys said his name was Perfesser Bechtel, an' I'd have him in Latin. One Perfesser they called Aldrich, an' he had whiskers all over his face an' looked like Pa. 'Nother one was named White, an' the boys said he was a great athalete a good while ago, but he didn't look like it. I saw a little lady-like man and the boys said he was Perfesser of Sychology, but I didn't know what that was. Then I went to see a great big man that's goin' to teach me German. The fellers called him "Ransy," an' he was awful lookin'. He signed my card an' tole me there was goin' to be a Faculty meetin' an' I couldn't see the other Perfessers till later.

I went on down stairs, an' jest as I got down two fellers grabbed me an' held me, an' they turned up my pants an' my coat inside out an' took me an' a bunch of us to Newcomb. Newcomb is a big girl's college an' they say it's the biggest an' best in the South. When we got there they made us go up on a little sort of gallery an' stan' on the banister rails. Then they tole me to sing a song an' I sung "Home, Home Ain't Nothin' Like This." I happened to look up at a winder, an' who do you reckon I saw? I'll be gol-durned if it wasn't Sallie Jones up there! Her folks had sent her down that mornin'. She waved to me, an' just then somebody up stairs throwed a pitcher er water on me. I didn't care, 'cause I knew Sallie was here, an' I guess I'll be glad to be at Tulane after all.

Well, after that, the Sophomores took us down town an' marched us all eround; then they let us go, an' I came on back to the Dormitory. I went to the telephone an' rung up Newcomb an' asked to speak to Miss Sallie Jones. She came to the 'phone an' tole me I could come to see her at eight o'clock Friday night. She didn't know she was coming to Newcomb until after I'd left, an' she come the next day. Day after tomorrow will be Friday, an' I wish that gol-durned clock would tick three times as fast as it does.

I went to see Sallie last night an' met some er her friends. I like Tulane fine. Say, they made a mistake erbout Newcomb; it ain't the best girl's college in the South; it's the best in the WORLD; an' Sallie Jones is the nicest girl in Newcomb College.

R. C. BAUER.

THE FRESHIES DISCUSS A CASE

Prof. S. A. W.: "Begin today with the case of 'Doornob vs. Cuspidor.' Mr. Baer will state the first case."

Baer: "This case was brought up by mistake to the higher court. The plaintiff, a man, while walking through a park, in which was planted many beautiful roses, stepped on the defendant's foot and caused paralysis of her left ear, from which she suffered greatly for 10 years, 9 months, 12 days, 4 hours, 6 minutes and 3 seconds. She was cared for by her mother's cousin's granddaughter, and, according to the rule of 'respondeat superior,' the defendant brings suit. Judgment for the defendant. Court held that, according to the laws of contracts, the man was very mean."

Prof.: "All agree?"

Simon: "Puff, puff. Hoot mon, daba, daba, dab," etc. . . .

Prof.: "What do you think about it, Mr. Bauer?"

Bauer: "Not prepared."

Prof.: "Don't seem to like contracts, do you? Do you agree, Mr. Weil?"

Weil: "Not prepared."

Gins: "According to 'Wigglemore on Evidence' and 'Bull on Criminal Law,' I agree with what Prof. Soup said year before last at eight-thirty."

Prof.: "Mr. Miller."

Miller: "Dey ought to put dat guy to woik."

Prof.: "What of it, Mr. Hall?"

Hall: "I've only read the case twelve times, and the only point I can see is that stated by Mr. Bowers."

Prof.: "Well, Mr. Bowers?"

Bowers: (Hadn't said a word.) "Professor, it has always seemed reasonable to me that beyond the shadow of a doubt the lady wore Imperial shoes, because the seashells at Gulfport are white."

Heard: "Suppose that is so; how does it explain the price of doughnuts?"

Schaumburg: "Wait, Professor; I've got it. The only way I can figure is by the equity of the subject. According to the rules of estoppel—"

Prof.: "Do you agree, Mr. Provosty?"

Provosty: "I haven't heard what he said, but, paragorically speaking, the indescribable 'But for' rule should stand."

Prof.: "What do you say to that, Mr. Davidson?"

Davidson (sleeping): "What page did you say?"

Prof.: "Let me state a parallel case. A man throws a 1,000-pound weight 100 feet high. It is caught by the wind, which carries it 5,000 miles. How does that differ from the principle case?"

Harrison: "The difference is this: I don't think it's just."

Saunders: "B-b-b-but it wa-wa-was a-a-a-a north wind."

West: "Well, I think Justice Lampblack agrees with me thoroughly, and as this was a Queen's Bench case, if it was left to me, I would quash the indictment."

Prof.: "Mr. Morris, do you agree?"

Morris: "Yes, sir." (Aside) "Boy, Boy, I haven't heard what he said, but I think it's in my notebook."

Prof.: "Mr. Jenkins."

Jenkins: (Just walked out.)

Prof.: "Billups."

Billups: "I think Justice Whaleoil was correct."

Prof.: "Well, for the next lecture I will give you something to think about, viz., When is a buggy?"

The class will adjourn."

THE TULANE UNIVERSITY OF LOUISIANA

NEW ORLEANS

ROBERT SHARP, A.M., Ph.D., President

The University, in all its departments, is located in the City of New Orleans, the metropolis of the South. There are eleven departments, with twenty-four buildings. Modern dormitories, extensive laboratories, libraries, and museums.

THE COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES, for men, offers full courses in Literature and Science. There are many scholarships in this College open to high school graduates.

THE COLLEGE OF TECHNOLOGY offers unexcelled four-year courses in the following schools: Mechanical-Electrical Engineering, Civil Engineering, Chemistry and Chemical Engineering, Architecture and Architectural Engineering.

THE NEWCOMB COLLEGE offers full courses in Literature, History and Science; in the School of Art every facility for the study and practice of industrial, and fine arts, with picture galleries and an art library; in the School of Music superior facilities for the study of Music in all its branches; in the School of Household Economy professional, special and elective courses in Domestic Science and Domestic Art. Special training for prospective teachers of high and elementary schools.

THE FACULTY OF GRADUATE STUDIES, open to graduates of approved colleges, offers advanced courses leading to the degrees of A.M., M.E., C.E., Ch.E., and Ph.D. A number of Fellowships are awarded annually.

THE COLLEGE OF LAW offers two complete three-year courses, each leading to the degree of Bachelor of Laws; one to prepare students for practice in Common Law States, the other to prepare students for practice in Louisiana.

THE COLLEGE OF MEDICINE, embracing:

THE SCHOOL OF MEDICINE, established in 1834, with unexcelled laboratory and clinical advantages, offers a five-year course to high school graduates.

THE POST-GRADUATE SCHOOL OF MEDICINE, established in 1888, as the New Orleans Polyclinic. Graduate courses offered in all fields of medicine, including research.

THE SCHOOL OF HYGIENE AND TROPICAL MEDICINE offers short courses in public health and tropical medicine. Regular courses for degrees of D.P.H. and D.T.M.H., etc.

THE SCHOOL OF PHARMACY, established in 1838. Degrees of Ph.G. (2 years), Ph.C. (3 years), and Pharm.D. (4 years), offered. Women admitted on same terms as men.

THE SCHOOL OF DENTISTRY (formerly New Orleans College of Dentistry), offers a full three-year course leading to the degree of D.D.S., with practically unlimited clinical material.

THE COLLEGE OF COMMERCE AND BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION offers substantial professional training preparing for a business career.

Other men judge your letters just as you judge theirs

Generally it is not your fault, nor that of your stenographer, if a letter goes out poorly typewritten, the lines uneven, letters faint or jammed clear through the paper—

But the man or firm getting that letter may have no other way of judging you and your business.

You judge others in just the same way.

You've seen letters written on the Royal, most likely.

That even, smooth, beautifully legible print truly has personality in it.

The Royal is instantly adjusted to the individuality of the operator. A little thumbscrew does it—and the operator forgets there is a machine between fingertips and paper.

That's only one reason why the Royal is the choice of "big business."

The Royal not only writes everything, but it bills and charges, and it writes cards—writes anywhere and everywhere on a card—without a single extra attachment or the least change. When you install a Royal you end the "trade-in" evil of the typewriter business.

The Royal is built to live long, and it is built to give such unchangingly satisfactory service that you'll never want to trade it.

For the same reason it keeps the repair man away. Work goes on as it should. Your stenographer is pleased with that, and also pleased because the Royal is practically frictionless and dustless—it requires much less cleaning and oiling.

Get the facts. Know the Royal, whether you need one or a hundred typewriters, or whether you are considering a purchase now or not.

A demonstration takes but a few moments. It places you under no obligation—we'll thank you for the opportunity.
